

TWO TERRORISMS CONFRONT RUSSIA

That of Bureaucracy is Infinitely the Worse

Finds Meener Victims Than Does Revolution and Inflicts Tortures.

LONDON TIMES EXPOSITION

London, Sept. 25.—The Times continues its remarkable series of articles from the interior of Russia showing an almost unanimous revolutionary spirit among the peasantry. The following excerpts give a vivid idea of the latest revelations:

"Two terrorisms at the present moment are striving for mastery in Russia. It is the bureaucratic rather than the revolutionary which strikes uselessly and capriciously and stoops to mean victims.

"Thousands of miserable Jews, students, and women are the mean victims of the government. Even when punishment falls where due, it often is administered in manner that leads to a general palliation of crime.

"I spent a few days among a household of which the younger members at least have been made revolutionaries by having their feelings wrought upon by the sight of men with the 'wolf' passport," to which I referred in my last article.

"Some of the unfortunates often present themselves at the door begging bread. They cannot be given work or shelter for more than a night without a breach of law. Thus law abiding Russians subjects are compelled to become participants in what is felt to be a crime against these men, however, heinous their offenses may have been.

"I myself have seen another 'wolf' since I last wrote. This one did not cry 'Hands up.' But he cried like a child as he showed his feet, sore with much travel, and complained that he must still move on. He had been sent to Perm, thence to Odessa, and now is tramping under orders to Vladivostok or anywhere else in the Russian empire excepting always Uljin Novgorod, which is his home and where he had eaten the fruit of the forbidden tree of knowledge of political rights and grew, from which paradise he had been driven forth, his passport a flailing sword forbidding his return.

"It is said that Sipyagin, when minister of the interior, with perverse ingenuity invented the 'wolf' passport" and that it was for that crime that he was assassinated. It breeds assassins to this day—for instance the case of Marie Spiridonova.

More Beer; Less Drunkenness.

Positive Proof That Beer is a Means to Temperance.

An interesting and practical temperance lesson may be drawn by our readers from the increased consumption of beer in this country and a corresponding decrease in drunkenness. Really sincere temperance workers are learning to differentiate between malt liquors and spirits if we may take some of the public utterances of celebrated public leaders as an example. They urge the substitution of beer for stronger liquors as the real means to temperance and sobriety.

In some of the states where the practical, progressive temperance workers are strongest we find the people giving consideration to a law that makes the license much less for selling beer than spirits.

This shows the tendency of the times is favorable to beer. The recent report of the Internal Revenue department shows 60,000,000 more gallons of beer drank than in any previous year and statistics are quoted showing a decrease in drunkenness in the states that is very satisfactory to those who are not only earnest but practical in their labors for temperate habits in our people.

As a distinct aid to temperance as well as a wholesome, refreshing beverage Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer leads all others. One reason for its great popularity is the fact that doctors recommend it because of its absolute cleanness, purity, age and strength. It is the most nutritious beer brewed because made from Pabst exclusive eight-day malt which retains in greatest degree the food value of the barley. This Pabst exclusive eight-day process malt doubles the cost but it makes Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer the superior of all American beers and accounts for its great popularity.

and tortured her in prison, stripped her naked and branded her body with lighted cigarettes broke the joints of her fingers and toes, and gouged out one of her eyes, so that when her mother saw her she failed to recognize her child. I cannot believe these barbarities were committed, but a letter is in circulation in which the charges are made. It purports to have been written by Maria Spiridonova herself. The Cossacks and police officer both have been assassinated on the faith of her word.

"She was condemned to Siberian exile. The story of her deed preceded her, and she was acclaimed a heroine en route. When she passed through Kurgan the people of the district crowded around her and compelled the guard to allow her to deliver a speech.

"The blood oozed from her mouth as she spoke. Her concluding words were:

"My exile will not be long. In five years I shall be back and then our dear country will be free."

"Meantime famine, discontent and disorder are in all the Volga provinces from Nijni Novgorod to Astrakhan.

WAS THE JUDGE

BUT ANGRY DRIVER DID NOT RECOGNIZE HIM.

When Name of Police Magistrate Was Mentioned He Became Quite Docile.

Police Judge E. H. Puryear came near holding police court half an hour late this morning and in the street, too. He was walking on Broadway en route to the police station. At Seventh street in front of Temple Israel a city horse hitched to a dump cart was lying down. It had slipped on the paving and refused to get up. No coaxing "went" with the animal and the driver got angry. He did not know the police judge, who suggested methods of getting the animal up.

"I'll fix you, you blankety, blank," the driver swore.

"I would not talk that way," the court warned, "you might get into trouble."

"I don't care a blankety, blank," the driver replied, "I am going to get this horse up if I have to blow him up with dynamite."

Some one addressed the judge and the driver became as docile as the horse when the cart was pushed from under him.

The Best Shoe Values...

At Any Price and All Prices.

We believe our twenty years of experience in the shoe business, most of the time in the practical end of it, fit us to know shoe value, and it has always been our policy to handle only those lines we knew absolutely to be the best.

It has taken years to get those lines,—years of observation, study and actual demonstration, as you can easily appreciate, but we feel confident now that we have succeeded and that no matter what amount of money you wish to spend for shoes, you will get the best value that money will buy here. Isn't this something to work for? Don't you think the people appreciate such a store?

We know they do, from the success we have had in building up our business, and now that we have done so, on such lines, more than ever, we have cause to continue the same policy and shall.

Look at the lines below. You know every one of them for they are made by some of the best and largest concerns in the country, people who, knowing their value, have not been backward in setting them forth.

As an illustration:

The Florsheim Shoes $5 and $6

The Florsheim shoe is the peer of any shoe sold at the price, and is as good a shoe as that money will buy. The manufacturers are close to the trade, and are keen for any improvements possible to make in the line. The style in the Florsheim shoe is absolutely perfect. The shoes are made over special lasts which give a perfect fit. The leathers used in the manufacture are scrutinized closely for any blemishes, assuring the character of the material entering into their make-up. The prices are $5 and $6.

The W. L. Douglass $3.50

The W. L. Douglas shoe needs no introduction to any one. Douglas makes more $3.50 and $4 shoes than any manufacturer in the world, and the steady growth of his business is but a fitting testimony to the high grade character of his shoes. We carry his full line, and you will find any style shoe you want in it.

Hamilton, Brown $1.50 to $4.00

Hamilton, Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis are the largest shoe manufacturers in the world, and the reputation of their shoes is world wide. They make the American Gentleman shoe, which sells for $1.50, $2.00, $3.00, $3.50 and $4, and each shoe, at its price is as good as that amount of money will buy.

Endicott-Johnson $1.50 to $4.00

The Endicott, Johnson & Co. plant is one of the world's largest, and the company's reputation the peer of any in the country. We selected this line merely because the knowledge gained in our twenty years' shoe business told us it is a line we can safely guarantee to anyone. The prices of these shoes are $1.50 to $4.00, and their goodness appeals to you on sight.

The Dorothy Dodd $3 to $4

The Dorothy Dodd is a new addition to our famous lines. It was only after careful study of the shoe that we added it,—as is our custom with any shoes, as it is our policy to sell no shoe that we are not absolutely sure we are giving our customers all their money will buy. The Dorothy Dodd shoe, however, is a known quantity to many of you, and let it suffice to say we have the entire line, in all its beautiful styles, and if you want to spend $3 or $4 for a shoe you cannot do as well as you can right here.

The American Lady $1.50 to $3

The American Lady is another new addition, and one subjected to the same study as our other lines. We believe it is the peer of any shoe at its price. The styles appeal to us as does every quality in its make-up. This shoe comes in the $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

Pierce's Line of Infant Shoes

In babies' shoes we have the famous Pierce line, which sell for 50c on up to $1.50, and there is no better shoe made.

Boys' School Shoes $1 to $2.50

Here's where we are strong, in strong shoes for strong boys. The Security School shoes, Hamilton Brown make them and have put years of thought into them with pleasing results. They sell at $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

Endicott Johnson also make us a line of school shoes for boys at the same prices which easily sustain this house's reputation for shoe values.

We also have the Barker Brown shoes for boys. They cost a little more than others, but the value is more. The makers call them "Good shoes for bad boys," and they are certainly good for the prices asked, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50.
